ANSWER AND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES OF DEFENDANT GIBSON

Defendant Martin Gibson ("Gibson"), through counsel, answers the allegations of Plaintiffs' First Amended Complaint (the "Complaint") as follows. To the extent not explicitly admitted, all other allegations of the First Amended Complaint are denied.

INTRODUCTION

1. Pursuant to the Court's order dated November 15, 2005, the allegations involving breaches of duty of care, waste of corporate assets for actions in violation of the duty of care, and aiding and abetting violations of the duty of care have been dismissed. Accordingly, no response to those allegations is required. To the extent a response is required, Defendant Gibson admits that Plaintiff purports to bring this action to, among other things, redress breaches of fiduciary duty, including breaches of loyalty and due care, by the Directors, Officers and controlling shareholders of the IT Group. Defendant Gibson also admits that Plaintiff purports to seek not less than $150 million in damages on these claims and that Plaintiff purports to assert claims to avoid and recover preferential and constructively fraudulent transfers to certain of the Defendants. Except as so expressly admitted, Defendant Gibson denies the remaining allegations in Paragraph 1 of the Complaint and specifically denies that Plaintiff is entitled to any of the relief sought by its Complaint.

PARTIES

2. In response to Paragraph 2 of the Complaint, Defendant Gibson admits that Plaintiff purports to bring this action in its capacity as the representative of the Debtors and their estates and for the benefit of the estates' creditors, and that Plaintiff purports to bring this action pursuant to the authority granted to it under law and the Court's Orders dated March 12, 2004, December 22, 2003, and November 6, 2003, and the Stipulation and Order dated September 1, 2004. Except as so expressly admitted, Defendant Gibson denies the remaining allegations in Paragraph 2 of the Complaint.

3. Defendant Gibson admits that D'Aniello was a director of the IT Group and a member of the Executive Committee and Compensation Committee of the board of directors of the IT Group from 1996 through 2002. Defendant Gibson is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in Paragraph 3 of the Complaint, and on that basis denies all of the remaining allegations in Paragraph 3 of the Complaint.

4. Defendant Gibson admits that Harvey was a director of the IT Group from 1999 through 2002 and served as a member of the Executive Committee and Compensation Committee of the board of directors of the IT Group. Defendant Gibson further admits that in November 2001, Harvey was appointed acting CEO and President of the Company. Defendant Gibson is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in Paragraph 4 of the Complaint, and on that basis denies all of the remaining allegations in Paragraph 4 of the Complaint.

5. Defendant Gibson admits the allegations in Paragraph 5 of the Complaint.

6. Defendant Gibson admits that Defendant Richard W. Pogue was a director of the IT Group and a member of the Audit Review Committee of the board of directors of the IT Group from 1998 through certain times in 2002.

7. Defendant Gibson admits that Dolan was a director of the IT Group and a member of the Compensation Committee of the board of directors of the IT Group after November 20, 1996. Defendant Gibson is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in Paragraph 7 of the Complaint, and on that basis denies all of the remaining allegations in Paragraph 7 of the Complaint.

8. Defendant Gibson admits the allegations in Paragraph 8 of the Complaint, except to state that his first initial is E, not B.

9. Defendant Gibson admits the allegations in Paragraph 9 of the Complaint.

10. Defendant Gibson admits the allegations in Paragraph 10 of the Complaint.

11. Defendant Gibson admits that Watkins was a director of the IT Group and a member of the Compensation Committee of the board of directors of the IT Group from 1996 through 2002. Defendant Gibson is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in Paragraph 11 of the Complaint, and on that basis denies the remaining allegations in Paragraph 11 of the Complaint.

12. Defendant Gibson admits that DeLuca was President and Acting CEO and a director as of November 1996, and was named IT Group's CEO and President on July 22, 1997. Defendant further admits that DeLuca resigned as Chief Executive Officer, President and director of IT Group on or about November 13, 2001. Defendant Gibson is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in Paragraph 12 of the Complaint, and on that basis denies all of the remaining allegations in Paragraph 12 of the Complaint.

13. Defendant Gibson admits that Soose was Vice President, Controller of IT Group as of November 1996 and became Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer in July, 1999. Defendant Gibson is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in Paragraph 13 of the Complaint, and on that basis denies all of the remaining allegations in Paragraph 13 of the Complaint.

14. Defendant Gibson admits that the Carlyle Group is a private entity with its primary place of business in Washington, D.C. and that it invested in the IT Group through a number of entities which the Carlyle Group owned or controlled. Defendant Gibson denies the remaining allegations in Paragraph 14 of the Complaint.

15. Defendant Gibson is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph 15 of the Complaint, and on that basis denies the allegations in Paragraph 15 of the Complaint.

16. Defendant Gibson is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph 16 of the Complaint, and on that basis denies the allegations in Paragraph 16 of the Complaint.

17. Defendant Gibson is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph 17 of the Complaint, and on that basis denies the allegations in Paragraph 17 of the Complaint.

18. Defendant Gibson is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph 18 of the Complaint, and on that basis denies the allegations in Paragraph 18 of the Complaint.

19. Defendant Gibson is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph 19 of the Complaint, and on that basis denies the allegations in Paragraph 19 of the Complaint.

20. Defendant Gibson is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph 20 of the Complaint, and on that basis denies the allegations in Paragraph 20 of the Complaint.

21. Defendant Gibson is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph 21 of the Complaint, and on that basis denies the allegations in Paragraph 21 of the Complaint.

22. Defendant Gibson is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph 22 of the Complaint, and on that basis denies the allegations in Paragraph 22 of the Complaint.

23. Defendant Gibson is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph 23 of the Complaint, and on that basis denies the allegations in Paragraph 23 of the Complaint.

24. Defendant Gibson is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph 24 of the Complaint, and on that basis denies the allegations in Paragraph 24 of the Complaint.

25. Defendant Gibson is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph 25 of the Complaint, and on that basis denies the allegations in Paragraph 25 of the Complaint.

26. Paragraph 26 of the Complaint contains no factual allegations, and therefore no response is required.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

27. The allegations in Paragraph 27 of the Complaint state a legal conclusion to which no response is required.

28. The allegations in Paragraph 28 of the Complaint state a legal conclusion to which no response is required.

FACTUAL SUPPORT OF CLAIMS FOR RELIEF

29. The First Amended Complaint does not contain a Paragraph 29.

30. Defendant Gibson admits that the IT Group was a Delaware Corporation with its principal office in Monroeville Pennsylvania at certain times. Defendant Gibson further admits that at certain times, the IT Group was a provider of services in the areas of consulting, engineering, construction, environmental remediation, facilities and waste management; that the IT Group's projects ranged in length from one month to many years; that IT Group's range of services included the identification of contaminants in soil, air and water, as well as the subsequent design and execution of remedial solutions; and that IT Group also provided project and facilities management capabilities and other related services to non-environmental civil construction, watershed restoration and the outsourcing privatization markets. Defendant Gibson is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in Paragraph 30 of the Complaint, and on that basis denies all of the remaining allegations in Paragraph 30 of the Complaint.

31. Defendant Gibson denies that the Carlyle Defendants took control of the IT Group. Defendant Gibson is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in Paragraph 31 of the Complaint, and on that basis denies all of the remaining allegations in Paragraph 31 of the Complaint.

32. Defendant Gibson admits that, beginning in or about 1998, the IT Group acquired at least eleven companies over the next two years. Except as so expressly admitted, Defendant Gibson denies the remaining allegations in Paragraph 32 of the Complaint.

33. Defendant Gibson admits that in or about February and June 1998, the IT Group acquired OHM Corporation. Defendant Gibson is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in Paragraph 33 of the Complaint, and on that basis denies all of the remaining allegations in Paragraph 33 of the Complaint.

34. Defendant Gibson admits that in or about December 1998, the IT Group acquired Groundwater Technology, Inc. Defendant Gibson is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in Paragraph 34 of the Complaint, and on that basis denies all of the remaining allegations in Paragraph 34 of the Complaint.

35. Defendant Gibson admits that in or about March 1999, the IT Group acquired Roche Limited Consulting Services. Defendant Gibson is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in Paragraph 35 of the Complaint, and on that basis denies all of the remaining allegations in Paragraph 35 of the Complaint.

36. Defendant Gibson admits that in or about April 1999, the IT Group acquired EFM Group. Defendant Gibson is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in Paragraph 36 of the Complaint, and on that basis denies all of the remaining allegations in Paragraph 36 of the Complaint.

37. Defendant Gibson admits that in or about June 1999, the IT Group acquired EMCON, Inc. Defendant Gibson is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in Paragraph 37 of the Complaint, and on that basis denies all of the remaining allegations in Paragraph 37 of the Complaint.

38. Defendant Gibson admits that in or about May 2000, the IT Group acquired W&H Pacific, Inc. Defendant Gibson is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in Paragraph 38 of the Complaint, and on that basis denies all of the remaining allegations in Paragraph 38 of the Complaint.

39. Defendant Gibson is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph 39 of the Complaint, and on that basis denies the allegations in Paragraph 39 of the Complaint.

40. Defendant Gibson denies the allegations in Paragraph 40 of the Complaint.

41. Defendant Gibson denies the allegations in Paragraph 41 of the Complaint.

42. Defendant Gibson is unable to determine the method of measurement for the allegations that, as of 1998, the IT Group had experienced consecutive fiscal years in which it had lost money, and on that basis denies the allegations in Paragraph 42 of the Complaint.

43. Defendant Gibson admits that the Acquisitions between 1998 and 2000 were funded largely by debt financing. Defendant Gibson is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in Paragraph 43 of the Complaint, and on that basis denies all of the remaining allegations in Paragraph 43 of the Complaint.

44. Defendant Gibson admits that the Debt Financing increased the Company's leverage and increased its interest payments. Defendant Gibson is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in Paragraph 44 of the Complaint, and on that basis denies all of the remaining allegations in Paragraph 44 of the Complaint.

45. Defendant Gibson admits that the IT Group requested and obtained from the Bank Group in March 2000 an additional $100 million term loan. 46. Defendant Gibson is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph 46 of the Complaint, and on that basis denies the allegations in Paragraph 46 of the Complaint.

47. Defendant Gibson denies the allegations in Paragraph 47 of the Complaint.

48. The term "desired benefits" is vague, ambiguous and undefined. On that basis, the Defendant Harvey is incapable of responding to the allegations in Paragraph 48 and on that basis denies the allegations in Paragraph 48 of the Complaint.

49. Defendant Gibson is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph 49 of the Complaint, and on that basis denies the allegations in Paragraph 49 of the Complaint.

50. Pursuant to the Court's order dated November 15, 2005, the allegations involving breaches of the duty of care, waste of corporate assets for actions in violation of the duty of care, and aiding and abetting violations of the duty of care have been dismissed. Accordingly, no response to those allegations in Paragraph 50 is required. To the extent an answer is required, Defendant Gibson denies the allegations in Paragraph 50 of the Complaint.

51. Pursuant to the Court's order dated November 15, 2005, the allegations involving breaches of the duty of care, waste of corporate assets for actions in violation of the duty of care, and aiding and abetting violations of the duty of care have been dismissed. Accordingly, no response to those allegations in Paragraph 51 is required. To the extent an answer is required, Defendant Gibson admits that, in 1999 and 2000, Defendants did not retain financial asset divestiture consultants, turnaround and restructuring consultants, or bankruptcy counsel. Defendant Gibson denies all of the remaining allegations in Paragraph 51 of the Complaint.

52. Pursuant to the Court's order dated November 15, 2005, the allegations involving breaches of the duty of care, waste of corporate assets for actions in violation of the duty of care, and aiding and abetting violations of the duty of care have been dismissed. 111. The allegations in Paragraph 111 of the Complaint state a conclusion of law to which no response is required.

112. The allegations in Paragraph 112 of the Complaint state a conclusion of law to which no response is required.

113. The allegations in Paragraph 113 of the Complaint state a conclusion of law to which no response is required.

114. Defendant Gibson denies the allegations in Paragraph 114 of the Complaint.

115. The allegations in Paragraph 115 of the Complaint state a conclusion of law to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Defendant Gibson denies the allegations in Paragraph 115 of the Complaint.

NINTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF (Liability of Director Defendants for Unlawful Payment of Dividends Under Del. Code § 174)

116. Defendant Gibson incorporates his responses to Paragraphs 1 – 115 of the Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

117. The allegations in Paragraph 117 of the Complaint state a conclusion of law to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Defendant Gibson is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph 117 of the Complaint, and on that basis denies the allegations in Paragraph 117 of the Complaint.

118. The allegations in Paragraph 118 of the Complaint state a conclusion of law to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Defendant Gibson denies the allegations in Paragraph 118 of the Complaint.

119. Paragraph 119 of the Complaint contains no factual allegations, and therefore no response is required. However, Defendant Gibson avers that the Litigation Trust may not reserve rights which have been barred by, among other things, the applicable statute of limitations.

To the extent that any allegations of the Complaint have not been responded to, in paragraphs 1 – 119 above, these allegations are denied.

AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

First Affirmative Defense

The claims alleged in the First Amended Complaint are barred, in whole or in part, by the applicable statute of limitations.

Second Affirmative Defense

The First Amended Complaint and each purported claim for relief fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted.

Third Affirmative Defense

The Litigation Trust's claims are barred in whole or part by the doctrines of waiver, estoppel, laches, ratification, discharge in bankruptcy and/or unclean hands.

Fourth Affirmative Defense

The Litigation Trust lacks standing to maintain this action on the ground that the Litigation Trust has suffered no actual injury as a consequence of any actions by Defendants.

Fifth Affirmative Defense

The Litigation Trust lacks standing to maintain its claims for relief pursuant to Section 544(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and 6 Del. C. § 1303 et seq. on the ground that there is no actual creditor of the Debtor holding an unsecured claim allowable against the Debtor's estate which would have the right to void the applicable transfers under applicable law.

Sixth Affirmative Defense

The Litigation Trust has failed to mitigate any damages it may have sustained.

Seventh Affirmative Defense

Defendants violated no legal duty allegedly owed to the Litigation Trust.

Eighth Affirmative Defense

The Litigation Trust's claims are barred because Defendants' actions were privileged, legitimate, justified, and/or not improper.

Ninth Affirmative Defense

Insofar as any cause of action in the Complaint sounds in fraud, the Complaint fails to plead fraud with particularity.

Tenth Affirmative Defense

The Litigation Trust's claims for relief are barred by the doctrines of recoupment and set-off.

Eleventh Affirmative Defense

The Litigation Trust is precluded from recovering amounts where such recovery is inconsistent with applicable law and regulations.

Twelfth Affirmative Defense

Defendants acted in good faith, with due care and in the best interest of IT Group, its shareholders, its creditors, and/or any others to whom they may have owed a duty.

Thirteenth Affirmative Defense

The acts and/or omissions alleged are immune from liability under the Business Judgment Rule.

Fourteenth Affirmative Defense

No wrongful conduct occurred.

Fifteenth Affirmative Defense

A portion or all of the damages claimed to have been suffered by the Litigation Trust are not attributable to the acts or conduct of the Defendant.

Sixteenth Affirmative Defense

The acts and practices of persons or entities not associated with Defendants, and ongoing economic events, constitutes intervening and superseding causes of the alleged harm, if any, suffered by Plaintiffs.

Seventeenth Affirmative Defense

Any preferential transfer was (A) in payment of a debt incurred by the debtor in the ordinary course of business or financial affairs of the debtor and the transferee, (B) made in the ordinary course of business or financial affairs of the debtor and the transferee and (C) made according to ordinary business terms.

Eighteenth Affirmative Defense

After any preferential transfer, the creditor gave new value to or for the benefit of the debtor (A) not secured by an otherwise unavoidable security interest and (B) on account of which new value the debtor did not make an otherwise unavoidable transfer to or for the benefit of such creditor.

Nineteenth Affirmative Defense

Any preferential transfer was (A) intended by the debtor and the creditor to or for whose benefit such transfer was made to be a contemporaneous exchange for new value given to the debtor and (B) in fact a substantially contemporaneous exchange.

Twentieth Affirmative Defense

Any payments to Defendant as alleged in the Complaint were made for value.

Twenty-First Affirmative Defense

Any payments to Defendant as alleged in the Complaint were received in good faith.

Twenty-Second Affirmative Defense

Any payments to Defendant as alleged in the Complaint were made in exchange for reasonably equivalent value.

Twenty-Third Affirmative Defense

Any payments as alleged in the Complaint were made in the ordinary course of business or financial affairs of the Debtor and the transferor.

Twenty-Fourth Affirmative Defense

Defendant gave new value to the Debtor after any transfer.

Twenty-Fifth Affirmative Defense

Defendant avers as an affirmative defense that it intends to rely upon such other defenses as may become legally available hereafter or become apparent during discovery proceedings in this case and hereby reserves the right to amend this Answer to assert any such defenses.
